Now that training's out of the way,
ready to make it official?

How to become a volunteer therapy animal team

To become a volunteer therapy animal team, you and your animal will need to complete a registration. Team registration is the process you will go through to demonstrate that you and your animal are suitable and prepared for therapy animal work.

Why Register with Pet Partners

- Comprehensive insurance coverage for your visits
- Access to a Cancer Care Fund to help with treatment costs if your therapy animal is diagnosed with cancer
- High quality continuing education courses available free or at discounted prices
- Opportunity to participate in special programs, such as Read With Me™, included with your registration
- Access to a database of volunteer opportunities
- Invitation to Pet Partners national conference for the opportunity to professionalize your passion
- Opportunity to join 15,000+ Pet Partners registered therapy animal teams as part of the most prestigious therapy animal program in the country.
